

Risen or Lazarus House Rules Agreement:

I will comply with no drinking or drugging. All persons and rooms in the house are subject to search and persons given urine analysis by P&P or the House Manager regardless of legal status. Failure to comply may result in expulsion from the house.

I will keep my assigned room clean and do shared house chores consistently. I will have consideration for others, keep phone calls brief, socialize with others, support others and practice personal hygiene. Infractions produce demerits and more than three demerits can result in expulsion from the house. I will attend house meetings.

I will set goals and have support plans in place and be actively working toward those goals. The house manager will have a copy of them on file and do periodic checks (bi-monthly) to see if the plans are being actively pursued.

I will comply with no overnight guests. Female visits are done in the living room. No sexual contact is allowed in the house. There are no minors on the premises without a resident parent and no visitors after 10p.m.

I will not use violence or threats of violence. PP rules preclude possession of viable weapons or explosives. Possession or threats with a weapon will result in expulsion.

I will seek and find work within 2 weeks. Manager has work referrals. Until a job is found curfew is 10p.m. unless attending a support meeting. After a job is found curfew is 10 p.m. After the first month of work week-end curfew can be 12p.m. with manager's permission. All residents are to seek permission from their parole officer and from the house manager to spend a weekend or night away from the house. A minimum of 8 support meetings a month are required for all house members for the first year. MA, AA P&P, Bible Study, Church, and Goal meeting are also encouraged.

I will get my rent down to 0 within 90 days and keep it at 0 or face expulsion. All residents commit to three months of rent payment. If a resident is behind in rent he will have no vote in house meetings. Manager may work with special circumstances.

I will not have pornography, obtain a pet, smoke in the house (outback is permitted), steal or do any criminal activity. All illegal activity is to be reported to manager.

I _____ having read the rules of the Risen/Lazarus House do on this date _____ agree to abide by and live by these rules for as long as I am a resident. I acknowledge that regular tenant/landlord laws do not apply at Risen/Lazarus House.
